Individual or Group Questions

2. The episode opens with John interviewing the disciples about their memories of Jesus. How would you share about how you met Jesus? Who do you enjoy talking with about Jesus?
3. The disciples were gathered to mourn the loss of John's brother James. He had been martyred (Acts 12:1-2). Why is it good to simply reflect on Jesus during hard times?

Questions Continued:*Notes:

8. We see James and John and their intensity. Jesus rebukes them creatively. He said, "You're not more worthy than they!" Why is that a message we need to hear?
9. What other questions could you ask?

Questions Continued:

Notes:

3. What did you learn about the disciples, and what do you think the producers were trying to communicate?
4. Little James said, "He's healing the Samaritans. How many would believe in Him if he wasn't healing them?" How has your belief been impacted when Jesus hasn't done what you wanted? How do we know when we are following Jesus for who He is and not for what He can do for us?
5. How do you feel about Simon's treatment of Matthew? How powerful is it that Simon says he can't forgive him for what he's done, when you know Simon will need great forgiveness from Jesus for a later betrayal?

Individual or Group Questions

1. What quote from this episode was the most meaningful/impactful to you? Why?
2. This episode is rich in providing context and understanding of the Jews' religious culture and history, helping us have perspective on the world Jesus ministered in. Some of the subjects covered are deep and worth further reading for your growth:

- The Festival of Booths

We encourage you to do further research on each of these and revisit them in your group next week.

In the meantime, what can you conclude about each of these based on this episode?

Notes:

3. Simon the Zealot and Jesse (invalid by the Pool of Bethesda) are creatively connected as brothers by the series. How did the back story give you insight into the misery of Jesse whom John 5:5 tells us had been disabled for 38 years? How might his presence at the Pool of Bethesda indicate his desire to be healed?
4. What was the stated goal of the Zealots? Why were they able to justify murder? How can someone be so passionate for God and be so wrong as to how to please Him? (Freebie: Mark 15:7 hints that Barabbas may have been a Zealot.)
5. As you witnessed the disciples' preparation for the Festival of Booths, what thoughts did you have about the significance of religious tradition/heritage? About how Jews experienced God in community?
6. Jesus knew who He was looking for at the pool. He went seeking Jesse. Who is the Jesse in your life? Why? (Answer from his brother's perspective and from Jesus' perspective.)
7. Who is the Simon in your life? (Answer from his brother's perspective and from Jesus' perspective.)
8. Jesus told Jesse the pool had nothing to offer him. What do you find yourself turning to time and again that cannot satisfy/ provide/help you? In what ways do you turn to a "pool" instead of Jesus?
9. As Jesse carried out his mat, he was confronted by Shmuel who accused him of working on the Sabbath. How did this example of legalism gone rogue impact you? How/when might you be guilty of a similar mindset?

  - Pharisees plotting
  - Healing of man with withered handWhich of these stories within the story was most powerful to you and why?

Questions Continued:

4. Mary said to Peter, “He already fixed me once. I’m broke again. I can’t face Him.” It’s a common fear after our failure. Have you ever felt that, and how did you press through it? What would you tell someone who feels that they can’t face Jesus because of their failure?
5. Some have expressed concern about the creative license with dialogue and story that The Chosen sometimes displays. Why is it important to be able to distinguish between what is in the scriptural narrative and what is not?
6. The Pharisees are seen plotting and squabbling about Jesus. Why are they so concerned about Him? What do you like about them? What do you dislike?
7. Phillip and Andrew are hit hard by the news of John the Baptist’s arrest. Jesus also is emotional over it. Mary is missing. The food supply is short. Things seem bad. How do we respond when things seem to be falling apart around us? Why were the disciples shocked by Jesus’ decision to “pray” about things? Why is it hard for us to see prayer as a first step toward dealing with life’s issues?
8. The episode began with a flashback to David. It ends with the disciples eating grain. What was Jesus teaching about the Sabbath and our relationship to it?

Additional Resource:

A frequently asked question about the series is “How do I know what is in the Bible and what creative dialogue or story has been added to help us grasp the overall narrative?” We encourage you to consider reading through the gospels - Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. A wonderful way to do this is with the CSB Christ Chronological Bible.
