Life Notes

"Scandalous Stories" Luke 15:1-10

Opener:

Have you ever experienced a moment where you felt unexpectedly pursued or sought after, like the shepherd searching for the lost sheep or the woman diligently seeking her lost coin?

Go Deeper:

1. What prompted Jesus to share these parables in Luke 15:1-10? Why was there a need for these stories at that moment?
2. In Luke 15:1-2, who are the different groups of people mentioned—the "tax collectors and sinners" and the "Pharisees and scribes"? What was the general attitude towards these groups in society at the time?
3. Describe the characters in each of the parables (the lost sheep and the lost coin). What do these characters represent in relation to God and humanity?
4. What is the significance of the shepherd leaving the 99 sheep to find the one lost sheep? How does this reflect God's character?
5. Why is there rejoicing in heaven over one sinner who repents (Luke 15:7, 10)? What does this reveal about God's heart towards sinners?

Live It:

1. How do these parables challenge our typical understanding of God's character and His relationship with "outcasts"?
2. Reflect on a time when you felt like the "lost sheep" or the "lost coin" in your relationship with God. How did God pursue you during that time?
3. How can we, as a community of believers, reflect God's passionate pursuit of outcasts and sinners? What practical steps can we take to embrace those who feel marginalized or excluded?
4. In what ways can these parables inspire us to share the gospel with those who may feel disconnected from God or the church?
5. How does understanding God's relentless pursuit of sinners impact our own view of evangelism and outreach?

GOD TIME: Put on the Full Armor of God

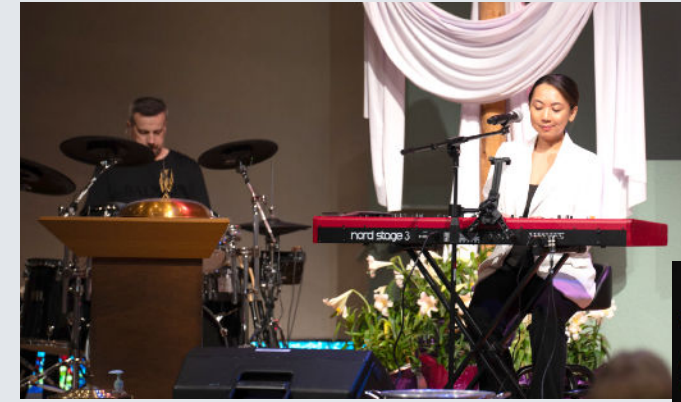

Ephesians 6 is a powerful reminder that life, inevitably, brings challenges and adversities that test our faith, integrity, and resilience. The "day of evil" refers to these times when we face opposition, temptation, or hardship.

The apostle Paul uses the metaphor of armor to illustrate the spiritual readiness required to face such challenges. Just as a soldier prepares for battle with physical armor, we are called to equip ourselves with spiritual armor. This includes truth, righteousness, peace, faith, salvation, and the Word of God. These are not merely defensive tools but are meant to empower us to stand firm, hold our ground, and advance in faith.

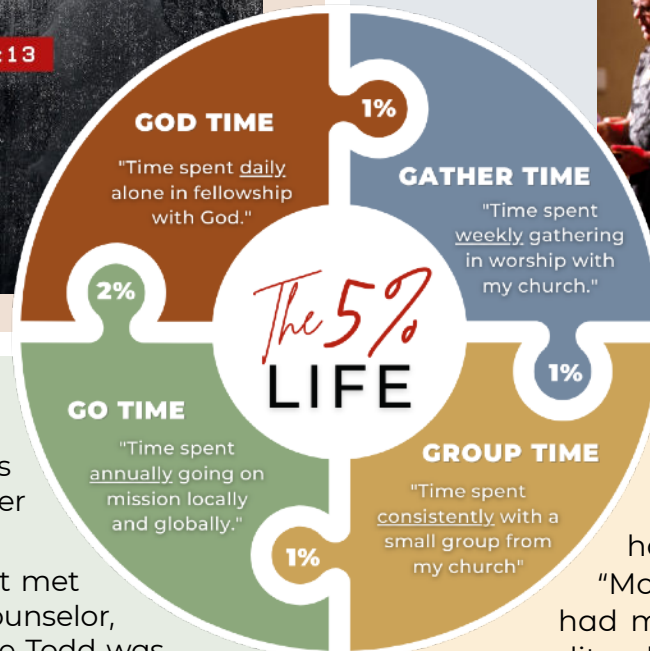

To stand after having done everything is to remain faithful, unwavering, and resilient in the face of life's battles. It is a call to action for every believer to prepare, to be proactive in strengthening their faith, and to trust in God's provision and protection. In this way, we can face any challenge with confidence and hope, knowing that we are not alone, but fortified by the full armor of God.

GO TIME: 1517 Mission Partner

Our guest preacher this weekend is Rev. Erick Sorensen, who is part of the leadership team with 1517.org, a new mission partner with Victory Lutheran Church.

Our first connection with Erick is through Pastor Todd, who first met Erick when he was in sixth grade and Todd was his cabin counselor, volunteering with the public school retreat to Catalina Island while Todd was with a Church Plant in southern California. Erick and his parents and family became very involved with Victoria Community Church, where Erick was in the youth group, then served as a young adult leader and missionary. Erick eventually went to seminary and then came back to Victoria to serve as Lead Pastor.

Today, Erick is in charge of Church Partnerships in the Development Department at 1517. His B.S. in Organizational Leadership is from Biola University, and his M.Div. is from Lutheran Brethren Seminary. Erick has served as a pastor in Fontana, California, Staten Island, New York and Roxbury, New Jersey. In 2015 he planted Epiphany Lutheran Church in Manhattan, New York. Erick is host of the Law & Gospel Devotional, co-host of the 30 Minutes in the New Testament and Field Guide to the Bible podcasts, and is co-author of Scandalous Stories: A Sort of Commentary on the Parables, which is available to purchase in the church lobby this weekend. You can read some of his online articles at: www.1517.org/speakers-network/erick-sorensen.

Victory is a Church Partner with 1517 in declaring and defending the Good News that we are forgiven and free on account of Christ alone! This is done by providing communication resources, speakers, and conferences that teach Reformation Theology and preach the Gospel.

GROUP TIME: One Small Act of Kindness Janet Peterson

Early in January 2015, I retired after working over 40 years. I had no idea of what to do with my life now. My oldest son said, "Mom it's time to get with the Church program! My youngest son had married and had joined the Lutheran Church. Victory Lutheran was literally on my corner, so during Easter — (I had to do my "Easter Duty,") off I went.

During service I sat next to Linda Long. (She was a Stephen Minister.) She introduced herself and invited me to attend her Wednesday Bible Study. I felt broken and alone but decided to give it a try.

There I found a group of women who accepted me for who and where I was. They welcomed me and took me in. I felt anxious and alone but I kept showing up. That was over ten years ago and I'm still attending that Wednesday Bible Study today.

Later on, I joined the church. Then later, I became a Stephen Minister. I now co-lead in the same Bible Study group. Had I not been spoken to and welcomed that day, I probably would not have come back.

I will always be grateful to Linda for her kindness that day. One small act changed my life. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, I have found my peace through Jesus Christ.
